

IOTC360 was invited by the EU Digital assembly to discuss vision and strategy on the future of IoT, 5G and market-, political- and social economic- developments.

During various sessions, regulations and future connectivity requirements for consumers/citizens and various connected objects were discussed.

The links below guide you to a variety of sessions in which National and European stakeholders participated:

More information:

Digital Assembly 2016 Bratislava